The Institute for Interreligious Studies (INTR°A) e.V., Schwerte/Germany

presents the

INTR°A Project Award 2024 for the Complementarity of Religions

to the

Rossing Center for Education and Dialogue, Jerusalem

As an interreligious peace-building organization, the Rossing Center for Education and Dialogue has been working for almost twenty years to foster an inclusive society for all religions as well as ethnic and national groups in the Holy Land.

The Center's Dialogue Department is dedicated to fostering projects that encourage Jews and Arabs to work trustfully together, creating shared and inclusive spaces for living, working, and studying. Despite the setbacks and upheavals since October 7, 2023, the Center has not ceased its tireless efforts to promote dialogue and understanding in Israel and to launch new projects.

One outstanding project in this regard is the 2013 initiated Healing Hatred Project. Among many other things, this project integrates trauma work into its multifaceted efforts to promote understanding and reconciliation between Palestinians and Israelis or Jews, Christians, and Muslims.

With special thanks to the Apfelbaum Foundation, the Rossing Center will receive 5,000 Euro to continue and develop this and other similar projects.
